Copyright License

1. I, __________________________, (“Licensor”), a student at Clarkson University, represent as follows:
   a. I am the sole author of a work entitled ________________________, (the “Work”).
   b. As the sole author, and having not conveyed any ownership or permissions to the contrary, I am the only individual or entity who may license or sell the rights to the Work (the “Rights”), as governed by Section 106 of Article 17 of the United States Code (the “Copyright Act”).
   c. I certify that if appropriate and applicable, I have obtained and submitted written permission statements from the owner(s) of each third-party copyrighted item included in my thesis or dissertation, and used appropriate citation to credit quotes or material appropriately attributable to others.
   d. I represent that my submission does not infringe upon anyone’s copyright.
   e. I am at least 18 years of age.
   f. My relationship with Clarkson is not governed by any employment agreement, collective bargaining agreement, or other provision that would affect the grant of Rights conveyed by this document.

2. With my Rights confirmed as set forth above, I, Licensor, grant Clarkson University the following irrevocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable Rights:

   ______ Paper duplication for purposes of library catalog and lending
   By initialing this option and signing below, you grant Clarkson University and its agents the right to generate no less than 5 printed, bound copies of the Work (“Hard Copy”), and to distribute same for library purposes.

   ______ Conversion to digital or later-developed medium
   By initialing this option and signing below, without limiting any rights held by the Libraries under Section 108 of the Copyright Act, you grant Clarkson University and its agents the right to convert the Work to digital format, or any other format later developed (“Converted Copy”).

_____ Duplication and Distribution of Converted Copy: Clarkson Community
By initialing this option and signing below, without limiting any rights held by the Libraries under Section 108 of the Copyright Act, you grant Clarkson University and its agents the right to duplicate and distribute the Converted Copy to the Clarkson Community, including students, employees, trustees, and those holding duly authorized library cards.

_____ Duplication and Distribution of Converted Copy: World-wide
By initialing this option and signing below, without limiting any rights held by the Libraries under Section 108 of the Copyright Act, you grant Clarkson University and its agents the right to duplicate and distribute the Converted Copy without any geographic or other limitations, in any and all mediums.

_____ Full license of all Rights
By initialing this option and signing below, without limiting any rights held by the Libraries under Section 108 of the Copyright Act, you grant Clarkson University a transferable, irrevocable license to the Work. This includes but is not limited to publication, distribution, preparing derivative works, performance, and display.

NOTE: Any inclusion of the Work in the library’s collection shall result in the abstract, bibliography and metadata being published in the libraries’ digital catalogs and databases.

3. An “Emargo” is a delay prior to placing your materials in the Clarkson University institutional repository. I wish to place an embargo delaying the release of my materials to the public:
